

DO I NEED A LICENCE?

If you wish to perform a production such as a nativity play or a musical from this catalogue, it is a legal requirement that schools, nurseries, churches and other organisations obtain a licence from the publisher. PRS and CCLI licences do not cover such performances. To cover this requirement we issue affordable licences on behalf of our writers that enable you to perform the works that we publish. Our prices start from as little as £10+VAT. If your organisation chooses to make an admission charge then this price may increase depending on your ticket price and how many tickets are sold. Our final charge will be calculated as 10% of the profit your organisation will have made from the event. If you wish to perform one of our musicals or nativity plays, simply complete the form below and return it to:
